Through the generosity of the Houston-based Apache Foundation and the Tree Bank Foundation of Oklahoma, over 500 Norman households will be able to receive a FREE TREE this Fall. The program is open to private residences only, no commercial properties, and one tree per household. Each citizen receiving a free tree will also be provided with a packet of information on tree care with specific planting and watering instructions.

Citizens must register to get a free tree. Registration begins at 9:00 a.m. Wednesday, October 13th and will last only as long as the tree inventory lasts. Early registration is not available.

To register go to www.normanok.gov.

If you do not have access to the Internet you may call 217-7719 or 366-5473, also beginning at 9:00 a.m. on October 13th. The distribution date for the trees will be Friday, November 5th.
